THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. Ronald L. Taylor, AIA

Reston, Virginia 22090

Dear Ron:

Thank you for your letter concerning my appointment as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence. It probably will as you know cut deeply into the time available for tennis, but I will do my best to prevent that from happening entirely. And, I'm sure that we can find time for those good matches you were so instrumental in scheduling in recent months.

The new assignment will be a tough one, but it will be full of opportunities as well as challenges, and I look forward to them.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
